How to download your digital images on a Windows device

Find your photoshoot link...

Your photoshoot link will be found in your email inbox that you gave to us during the booking process. If you have not had this, please wait or email woof@pawsomepics.co.uk

Once you have selected your images from your review page, your images will be available for download. If you have chosen a free image only, there will be no charge, if you have chosen mulitple images or a full collection there will be a charge. Payment can be made via card on our website, or if you prefer, you can bank transfer us.

The following guide will be applicable to both instances.

First click the link to your photoshoot page.

Your photoshoot page contains your image proofs, and your checkout link to continue to obtaining your digital images.

Your photoshoot page is private, nobody can see it but you. Next step is to add your file(s) to your basket. Using the button highlighted above.

Next you wil need to view your basket, using the link highlighted below.

Once you are in your basket you will see your collection, this will be met with a selection of recommended products, such as prints or a USB. If you would like to view other options, you can also view our online store using the alternative link below (see blue). You will be able to continue after browsing or adding additional products at a later time.
